

JENDAMARK INDIA PRIVATE LIMITED

Health, Safety and Environment Policy

Jendamark India Private Limited is committed to provide safe and healthy work environment for its employees at work sites and also equally committed to provide environment protecting products with world class standards.

To achieve this, we shall;

- Identify external and internal issues that are relevant to the purpose and context of JMKI, support strategic direction including the nature and scale of environmental impacts of its activities, products and services to achieve its intended results and enhance desirable effects by prevent or reduce undesired effects.
- Comply with all legal, statutory environment protection and safety regulations for its all business and manufacturing activities and fulfil its compliance obligations as well as maintain world class standards for its products.
- Will adopt measures to ensure quality, safety, health and environment protection within our all operations and strive to continually improve them.
- Will set performance targets and goals by giving highest priority to Health, Safety and Environment protection as well as optimum utilization of natural recourses through continued review and monitoring process.
- Ensure Safety and Health of all stakeholders we will take comprehensive measures such as prevention of injury and ill health, risk reduction, continuous education, communication, training and motivation programmes on the aspects of health, safety and environment protection with special focus on prevention of pollution & its control, best waste management practices and resource conservation.
- We will actively propagate and promote its HSE policy to all stakeholders, employees and all interested parties.

Rev. No.: 01

Mr. Himanshu Jadhav

Date: 01.08.2019

CEO

